The VIRGINIA GAZETTE, &c. EXTRAORDINARY.

[VOL. VII.] RICHMOND: WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1792. [NUMB. 325.]

Grand Piano Fortes.

THE Subfcriber takes this opportunity refpectfully to imform the lovers of mufic in general, but more particularly thofe, who have truly at heart the intereft of their country, as well as their own private intereft; that, ever fince he refided in this country as a teacher of mufic, he found by experience, that three-fourths, at leaft, of the inftruments, (efpecially the key'd ones) which are imported, have fuch capital defects, as oblige the importers to put them in the hands of an artift, before they can be ufed; and after all, their weak conftruction, which cannot be difcovered by the moft fkilful perfons employed in choofing them, can feldom be remedied, at leaft without a great expence; as the fault commonly lies in the infide of the body of the inftrument.

The Grand Piano Forte, in particular (the only key'd inftrument worth notice) is fubject to an exceffive complicate mechanifm, which occafions it to go out of order very eafily, and makes it very difficult to put it in again.

The above defects of thofe imported inftruments, together with their exceffive coft, have induced the fubfcriber to hope that he may meet with fome encouragement in manufacturing thofe delightful inftruments the Grand Piano Fortes, free from all the above defects, at a much cheaper rate than they can be imported, and likewife free from the dangers of feas. The goodnefs of the work will fhew itfelf, as it will not be hidden, like thofe imported, under patched up fineers, which foon fall in pieces. The ornaments of his inftruments fhall be folid, and as laffing as the inftrument itfelf, and the whole inftrument will be warranted folid.

The mechanifm of it, entirely his own invention, is fo fimple and eafy that any perfon may take out one fingle key, or all together, with the hammers, and put them in again in lefs than one minute. The purchafer will have the advantage of being fhewn how to take the whole work into pieces, in order to repair any fmall accidents which might happen to it.

One advantage very well worth notice, which his inftruments will have over thofe imported, will be this, that they will be all over varnifhed, fo that no kind of ftain or greafe can make any impreffion on them; they will want nothing but rubbing very flightly with a dry or wet cloth, by which means they will not be expofed, like others, to be put out of tune in waxing them. His prices will be proportioned to the quality of the wood, to the ornaments, and to the number of unifons, &c. Thofe prices will vary from 25 to 70l. and the fundamental work of the cheapeft fhall be as well made and as folid as that of the deareft.

As the celebrated Mr. Paffuali, in his moft excellent art of fingering the harpfichord, has ftrongly and very juftly recommended, that young learners fhould be taught on inftruments adapted to the length of their fingers, until they are are able to reach an octave on an inftrument of a common fize, the fubfcriber propofes making fuch as will fuit any young perfon, which if purchafed, he will, for a fmall confideration, change at any time, for a larger fize one.

He likewife propofes to hire inftruments to thofe who wifh to become his pupils, and do not choofe to purchafe any at firft.

He alfo propofes making harpfichords, fpinets, and guitars, if befpoke, and will take in payment, cafh or country produce.

He likewife repairs, in the neateft manner, ftringed inftruments of all kinds, and will keep a conftant ftock of wires and ftrings of all kinds, which he will fell at very moderate prices.

He has now on hand, two piano fortes, an excellent fpinet, a German flute, and likewife feveral excellent violins, and a chamber organ, very cheap.

He lives at prefent at the corner of Church-ftreet, in the houfe formerly called the Bird in Hand.

Cafh will be given for WALNUT and WILD CHERRY PLANKS, by

JAMES JUHAN.

Richmond, October 8, 1792.

FIVE YEARS CREDIT.

THE subscriber has for sale, part of a TRACT of LAND in the county of Buckingham, on the north branches of Willis's river, within 6 miles of the Clay-bank ford, to which place the navigation will probably be opened; consisting of from 500 to 1000 acres, or more. He has also another in the same county, 6 or 7 miles from the town of Warren, containing 1280 acres, more or less. The superior quality and advantageous situation of the above tracts of land, is such, as will render them an object with the planter, as well as farmer; particularly the first. However, as a personal examination of the premises will take place, prior to any negociation, shall only remark, that the Willis's land has a fine neighbourhood, a tolerable situation for a mill, and is level enough in most places. The other lies well is plentifully watered, and peculiarly adapted to farming; there is also an abundance of timber to supply the Warren market for many years. He will also sell on

TWELVE MONTHS CREDIT,

A YOUNG WOMAN, who is a complete cook, (especially in pastry) washer and ironer, together with one of her children; the honesty of this woman shall be sufficiently vouched for. A YOUNG MAN, who is an excellent barber and hair dresser, gardener and hostler, will be sold at the same time.

He has NINE VALUABLE TENEMENTS to be leased for the term of 10 years. Five in the county of Amherst, being the divisions of a plantation 4 miles below Lynchburg, mostly James river low grounds of the best quality. There are between 30 and 40 likely slaves on the said estate, to be hired yearly. The work horses, stock, plantation utensils, and several dwelling-houses, (one 28 feet long and 16 wide) to be disposed of as may be agreeable. The remaining four tenements, are in Buckingham county, on the north branches of Willis's river; near the first mentioned and for sale, viz. the old plantation, which will make two; the new plantation, which will make a third; and the fourth, near Capt. Samuel Allen's mill. These lands are healthy, fertile, and to which clearings may be added, as shall be agreed on. Those who would view the Willis's land, will please to apply to Robert Cary, Esq; Capt. Samuel Allen, Mr. Richard Ridgeway, or Mr. Knight Bowles, who lives on the same; and to Samuel Wintrey, Esq; Mr. Peter Roy, Mr. Richard Taylor, or Mr. —— Rice, living adjoining, with respect to the land near Warren. In all other matters application will be made to the subscriber in Lynchburg.—He has a HOUSE FRAME 36 feet long and 28 wide, with its appurtenances, which he will sell low. It lies near Lynchburg, and convenient to the river.

Unless privately bargained for, the leases in Amherst county will take place, at Auro-Paque, on the first day of November, with the disposal of the houses, work horses, stock, and plantation utensils; the slaves are to be hired before Mr. Dillon's door in Lynchburg on the 1st of November. The land near Warren, will be sold in that town on the 12th instant, and the sale of the land on Willis's, as also the leases, will commence at the old plantation on the 20th of the same month. Should bad weather, or other obstacle occur on either day, the business will be postponed till the next, when the aforesaid property will be disposed of to the highest bidder, on the terms abovementioned, except some further particulars which shall be made known in due time.

POWHATAN BOLLING.

N. B. Notwithstanding the insinuations of some persons, as I shall certainly leave this country in the spring, the public may rest assured that the sales, leases, &c. &c. will take place as above mentioned.

FOR SALE,

And possession given the 1st day of January, 1793.

A VERY valuable Tract of LAND, containing 630 acres, more or less, pleasantly situated on the mouth of York-River, commanding a full view of the Bay. There is a good dwelling house, together with other convenient out houses, all in good repair, it is 7 miles distant from York by land, and 5 by water, and has the advantage of an excellent fishery;—Vessels drawing twelve feet water may load within 50 yards of the shore.

The soil is fertile and well adapted to the growth of tobacco, corn and wheat; there is a full proportion of woodland, which is finely timbered, and the plantation in excellent order for cropping. From the advantage of salt Meadows, it is capable of supporting two hundred head of cattle, without the least expence—There are several eligible situations for erecting Wind Mills to great advantage. For terms, apply to Robert Armistead, in Norfolk, or the subscriber on the premises.

Returning, to leave Fayettsville every Thursday by four in the morning, and arrive at Wilmington the next day by five in the afternoon.

Note—1. If during the continuance of the contracts here proposed, any other times of arrival and departure of the mails should become necessary, to preserve a proper connection with other mails, the contractors are to conform to any arrangement which for that purpose shall be made by the Postmaster-General; such arrangement not increasing the number of hours above allowed for carrying the mails respectively, without their consent.

2. A convenient time, not exceeding half an hour, for opening and closing the mail, is to be allowed at each post-office at which the time of its arrival and departure is not herein specified.

3. For every half hour's delay (unavoidable accidents excepted) in arriving, after the times prescribed in any contract, the contractors to forfeit one dollar; and for the non performance of a trip, double the sum which the value of one trip shall bear to the value of the whole number of trips to be performed.

4. The mails may be carried, on any of the post roads herein described, either in stage waggons or on horses; but when the state of the roads prevents travelling in waggons with the necessary expedition, the mails are to be carried on horses. Every mail stage must have in it a box, in which the mail is to be invariably carried, under lock and key.

5. News-papers as well as letters are to be carried in the mails: And if any contractor would wish to be authorized to carry news-papers, other than those conveyed in the mail (agreeably to the 22d section of the Post Office law) he must, in his proposals, state the respective sums for which he will carry the mails, with and without the emoluments which may arise from such separate carriage of news-papers.

TIMOTHY PICKERING,
Postmaster General.

BY virtue of a decree of James-City court, will be sold on the premises, on the 22d of this month, if fair, if not the next fair day, a TRACT of LAND, lying in James-City county, containing three hundred and ten acres, more or less, belonging to the estate of John Camp, dec. Twelve months credit will be given, on giving bond with approved security to the
